Fastweb highlights Scholarship opportunities for African American students during Black History Month

Weston, MA (February 3, 2020) – Fastweb (www.fastweb.com), the leading website for scholarship and financial aid information and a member of the Monster network, celebrates the achievements of African Americans throughout history during Black History Month with a spotlight on scholarship opportunities available for today's students.

Fastweb encourages undergraduate, graduate and college-bound African Americans, and all minority students, to help fund their college education by applying for scholarship opportunities. In the new online resource – Scholarships for African American College Students – students can view a comprehensive list of scholarships in many academic areas such as; marketing, psychology, manufacturing operations, financial services and STEM fields. Award amounts range from $500 to $75,000.

“Fastweb is committed to providing access to scholarships for African American students to help them achieve their academic goals,” said Mark Nelson, Vice President, Fastweb. “Our 2020 resource is a compilation of scholarship opportunities from educational institutions, foundations and other organizations across a variety of career disciplines that focus on African American students”.

Additionally, with Fastweb's College Scholarship Directory, all students can search for awards by school year, ethnicity, race, unique situations and more. For more helpful free online resources, visit Fastweb.com or download the Fastweb app.
